

 Five Counties Teaching School Hubs Alliance	Delivered by:  	In partnership with:  Cabot Learning Federation
---	--	---

Privacy Notice

Date Adopted: 29th June 2021

Implementation Date: 29th June 2021

History of most recent Notice changes

Date	Page	Change	Origin of Change e.g. TU request, Change in legislation
17/06/21	Whole document	First draft v0.1	New DfE commission, GDPR requirements
28/06/21	Whole document	Amended draft v0.2	Check and approval by CLF Data Protection Officer
29/06/21	Whole document	First published v0.2

About this Privacy Notice

This privacy notice describes how Five Counties Teaching School Hubs Alliance ('the Alliance or 'we') collects and uses your personal information during and after your relationship with us.

We are a 'Data Processor'. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you, and for explaining this clearly to you.

This notice applies to prospective, existing and former customers of the Alliance (including employees and representatives of our customers); individual and business contacts and prospects; any person who provides services to us - either as an individual or as the employee or representative of a corporate service provider; and users of our Alliance programmes and website <https://fivecountiesalliance.co.uk/> (our main site).

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy information or notices we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

Information we collect and process

We collect personal information direct from you when you enquire about our products and services, when we establish you as a customer (for example, when you purchase tickets for a professional development event or register for a programme through our website), when you make a booking to hire any of our facilities, where we enter into a contract to receive services from you or when you use our site.

We collect further information from you during the period of our relationship. In summary, we use your personal data for the following purposes:

- to carry out obligations arising from any contracts between us and you; with our customers; with suppliers; or with third parties;
- to help us comply with our legal obligations (for example, Health and Safety laws if you or a visitor is hurt on our premises),
- to communicate with you, including to provide you with information, products or services; and
- where it is necessary for our business or our customers' business.

We set out below further information and our lawful basis for processing such information.

- Customers:
 - We collect and process your name, email address, telephone number, and for some services your address and bank details so we can provide products and services to you. Such processing is necessary for performance of the contract between us.

- We may also process feedback you provide to us on our products and services. Such processing is necessary for the legitimate interest of managing our business and improving our products and services.
- Suppliers, third party business contacts and prospects:
 - We process names, job titles and business contact information including addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses for your employees and representatives and other information to maintain and manage our relationship with you. Such processing is necessary for the performance of the contract between us.
 - Where you are an employee of a corporate client or contractor, we process this information for the legitimate interest of performing our contract with your employer.
 - If there is a problem, for example, if we have a complaint about a service you have provided then we have a legitimate interest in using personal information in connection with that complaint, for example, so that we can tell you what happened so that you can put things right.
 - We may perform due diligence in the form of credit checks on companies, including checking photographic identification and proof of address of directors and, in some cases, your shareholders, and verification of the company registration details. We do this to comply with our legal obligations, and as necessary for our legitimate interests of checking that the entities we contract with are financially viable and would not cause us reputational damage.
- Users of our site:
 - When you browse our site or purchase products through our site we may collect information about your preferences and the types of products you are interested in.
 - We also collect technical information, including the Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the Internet, your login information, browser type and version, time zone setting, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform.
 - We also collect information about your visit, including the full Uniform Resource Locators (URL) clickstream to, through and from our site (including date and time); products you viewed or searched for; page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information (such as scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs), and methods used to browse away from the page and any phone number used to call our customer service number.

This is for our legitimate interest in giving you content which is bespoke to you and making sure that our website runs smoothly. As an exception, if we are processing personal information through our website in connection with the provision of education then we are relying on public task as the basis rather than legitimate interests.

- Other uses

- Regardless of the relationship we have with you, we may need to use your personal information for legal reasons such as fraud prevention and to check that you are complying with our terms and conditions and to enforce our legal rights.
- Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent where this is required or permitted by law.
- We may contact you about our products and services by email, telephone, post or by text message but we will only do this where we are allowed to under data protection law. If you tell us that you do not want to be contacted for any of these purposes then we will of course respect that. Sometimes we will need your consent before contacting you for these reasons. If you give us your consent then you have a right to withdraw that consent at any time. Any use of your personal information before you withdraw consent remains valid.
- We may take photographs and videos of events taking place on the school premises for use in connection with publicity. This will include school publications, in social media and on the school website. We will seek specific consent for such use. If there is any reason why we should not take such photographs or videos, or if you have any concerns or objections to this, please let us know by any convenient means of communication.

Sharing your information

We may share your information with third parties as follows:

- We will share your personal information with third parties where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so.
- If we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we may disclose your personal information to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets.
- If we have a legal obligation to do so or for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.
- We may share your personal data with third party service providers who act on our behalf such as IT services providers. This notice also covers third party service providers we may engage with.

Where will we store your personal information?

Any personal information that you submit to us will be held on secure servers, based within the UK or the European Economic Area (EEA).

We may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK. For example, we may:

- store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas; or
- communicate with you using your work email address when you are overseas (for example, when you are on holiday).

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/dataprotection/datatransfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries_en

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK. We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact dataprotection@clf.uk.

How long will we use your personal information for?

We only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal information, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal information, the purposes for which we process your personal information and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

If you have a contact with us then we will typically keep information for six years after the contract is finished.

Your rights in relation to our processing of your personal information

You have the right to:

- be informed about what we are doing with your personal information - we do this by providing you with this privacy notice;
- object to the processing of your personal information;
- request a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it;
- request correction of the personal data that we hold about you if it is incorrect;
- ask us to delete the information that we hold about you where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it;
- to ask us to stop processing personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground;
- ask us to restrict how we use your personal information for a period of time if you claim that it is inaccurate and we want to verify the position, or if our processing is unlawful but you do not want us to erase your personal information, or for some other limited circumstances; and
- ask us to send another organisation information that you have provided to us in a format that can be read by computer.

If you want to exercise any of your rights, please contact dataprotection@clf.uk.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights).

If you ask us to restrict our use of your personal information or delete it, we will not be able to provide you with our products or services.

If you consider that we have not acted properly when using your personal information, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office: <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>